Two Burns Burned-Colored Brakeman Killed-Fett and Field Orate-Negro Boy Hurt-Base Ball News.

The Henderson Shoot.

The Hopkinsville Gun Club has returned from Henderson and the boys are loud in their praise of the genuinely hospitable manner in which they were treated by the Hendersonians. Our boys were met at the depot by the Henderson club with a brass band and were taken out to the fair grounds where they enjoyed an elegant barbecue, and at night they were taken in a body to the Park theatre. The shooting contest between the two clubs Tuesday afternoon was very interesting throughout, the score being 156 to 118 in favor of the Henderson club. This club is composed of crack shots, and considering the fact that only six members of the home club are in regular practice, they led them a fine fight and made a good score. Seven of our home club had never shot from a trap, but were good bird shots. The home boys were also placed at rather a disadvantage by having a very dark back ground, when they had been practicing in a clear field.

Fine Pressed Brick Clay.

Judge T. J. Morrow has discovered a very valuable bed of clay on his farm near the city. A barrel of it was sent to Walter C. Mitchell, of Cincinnati, to be tested and samples of dry pressed brick made from it have been sent back to Judge Morrow. Mr. Mitchell says it is the finest clay for red pressed brick he has ever seen and Cincinnati parties are anxious to come here and open up a plant. The bed is within a quarter of a mile of the L. & N. railroad and the only thing lacking to manufacture the brick largely is a satisfactory rate from the road to ship them away. A track will be run out to the bed and a big plant established, if terms can be made. The samples of brick are a beautiful red, finely polished and will sell at from $18 to $22 per thousand. A manufactory of this sort would give employment to many hands and we hope to see the plant established at once.

The Locals Win from Mayville.

Three of the most exciting games of base ball ever witnessed at Athletic Park came off this week when the locals crossed bats with the celebrated Mayville club. Mayville has several times beaten league teams this season and has held the state championship of amateurs, but they no longer carry the belt. They lost two out of the three games here and our boys are now the "leaders." On Monday the score was 3 to 1, in favor of Hopkinsville. Tuesday's game resulted: Mayville 4, Locals 3. The home boys did still better Wednesday and made 6 runs, visitors 0. All the games were hotly contested from start to finish and on the last day the crowd was about the largest of the season.

Trigg County News Notes.

CADIZ, Sept. 12.—Harry Pollard, a youth, while passing the jail Monday morning, was struck on the head with a bottle thrown by a prisoner. A long gash was cut on his forehead, from which blood flowed freely for some time. He was not seriously hurt, however.

Circuit court, which has been in session here for ten days, is moving along slowly with business. While the docket is a large one, there are few cases of much importance to the public to come up.

Mr. J. J. Chappell, who has been quite ill for several weeks, is now on the road to recovery.

Big Fire Near the City.

Late Wednesday evening a large tobacco barn belonging to Mr. J. C. Moore, and containing several thousand pounds of the weed, caught fire and was destroyed in a few minutes. While firing tobacco one corner of the building caved in, causing the entire structure to collapse. Mr. Moore's loss is estimated at about $2,000; no insurance.

Tobacco Barn Burned.

The large tobacco barn of Mr. Sterling Langley, of the Gresham's Chapel neighborhood, on Pond River, was consumed by fire about noon Monday. The building was filled with fine tobacco and it also went up in the flames. Hands had been engaged in firing the weed and the building caught from the sparks. Mr. Langley's loss will reach $1,000, with no insurance.

Colored Brakeman Killed.

Freeman Fry, a colored brakeman on the U. V. railroad, fell between the cars at Repton, Crittendon county, Wednesday and was killed, being cut to pieces. A bullet hole was in his body and one theory is that he was shot by a tramp put off the train.

THE QUILL DRIVERS.

They will be here in Full Force on the 25d. The Press Convention is now getting close to hand and the Committee on arrangements is in urgent need of more help from the citizens.

The newspaper people are being overworked in preparing for the meeting and any citizens who expect to lend a helping hand are requested to report at once to Mr. W. A. Wilgus, chairman of the arrangements committee, or to any of the newspaper men of the city.

The preparations for the banquet are fully under way. It will be at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday the 24th, as an early start will have to be made for Atlanta the next morning. The banquet will be served in ten courses with about the same number of toasts. It will be the most brilliant affair of the kind ever given in Hopkinsville. There will be from 350 to 400 seats and the brightest press people in Kentucky will be present. The ball Monday night will be corresponding ly brilliant, and is being looked forward to with much pleasurable anticipation. The attendance at the banquet will be limited to the members of the Press Association and the local contributors to the entertainment fund. There will be no complimentary tickets issued to anybody, so no one failing to get an invitation need feel slighted in the least.

About 200 visitors are expected and 140 of these have already secured transportation certificates. It is estimated that at least 150 will go to Atlanta. The Hopkinsville Band will go with the Association to Atlanta by special arrangement with the railroads and play wherever there is a demand for music.

A number of prominent editors have already engaged rooms at Hotel Latham. Among these are Sam J. Roberts and wife, Lexington Leader; Henry F. Woolfork and wife, Danville Advocate and A. J. Casey and wife, Owensboro Inquirer.

The Latham will give a rate of $2 for the third floor, $2.50 for the second and from $3 to $4 for special rooms in suites with bathrooms attached. The hotel chambers, some of which will doubtless be occupied, will cost $5 a day.

The Phoenix will make a rate of $2 a day anywhere in the house.

The hotel accommodations are ample and not surpassed in any respect by any city in Kentucky.

There will be seven trains Monday on the two routes upon which visitors can reach the city, the latest at 10:10 p. m.

Pettit and Field.

Col. Thos. S. Pettit, Populist candidate for governor, spoke at the court house Wednesday to a small crowd. Mr. Pettit vigorously assaulted both of the old parties, deriding much of his time to national issues. He spoke an hour and a half. Col. Pettit was followed by Gen. Jas. G. Field, of Virginia, late candidate for vice-president, who spoke an hour and a half on the currency question and other national issues, from a Populist standpoint. Both speeches were well received. Only a few country people were in town, as it is a very busy season with the farmers.

Jordan Taylor's Son.

Ed Taylor, the negro boy who was struck by a train at Casky Sunday, is still alive. He had both legs broken and was otherwise injured. The amputation of one leg is necessary, but Taylor refuses to part with it and says he is liable to die, without the operation. Taylor is a son of Jordan Taylor, hanged here ten years ago. He was drunk on the track. He is a boy about grown.

Elkton Merchant Assails.

T. P. Dew, a grocery merchant, of Elkton filed a deed of assignment Monday morning, naming Jno. M. Shanklin as trustee. Mr. Dew had only been in business there a few months and gives as a reason his failure to collect his accounts. His liabilities are given at about $800, while it is thought his assets will reach $1,000.

AWFUL ACCIDENT.

MARS THE OPENING OF THE G. A. R. AT LOUISVILLE.

Six Members of the Kentville Legion Slown By A Cannon-Fire-Killed and Two Wounded-The Parade of Veterans Something Stupendous.

Death in an awful form came to mar the G. A. R. festivities.

By the explosion of ammunition in the caisson of a cannon belonging to the Louisville Legion four members of Battery A and a colored driver were killed and two Legion men were wounded Wednesday. The accident occurred on Broadway, between Third and Fourth, at 5:50 o'clock. The men were on their way to Phoenix Hill to fire a salute to the G. A. R. parade.

Those killed were: Corporal A. L. Robinson, aged 26; Private Charles Biecher, aged 24; Private Charles Woods, aged 20; Private Archibald M'Bridge, aged 19; Wm. Adams, colored driver, aged 35.

The injured were Sergt. Fred Conn and Private Ed Hobbs.

The soldiers killed were members of Battery A, and belonged to a section of six in charge of one gun. Capt. David Castleman was in command. The five unfortunate were seated on the caisson.

Capt. David Castleman, who was in charge, was riding at the side of the caisson. He escaped injury.

The caisson contained sixty pounds of powder, enough to fire forty rounds. The report that one of the men was smoking is denied by Capt. Castleman.

Col. John B. Castleman said it was one of those unfortunate accidents that can not be guarded against. A similar one occurred in Chicago during the strike in which three men were killed and several wounded.

Despite the awful catastrophe that has cast a deep gloom over the whole city, the official program of the day was carried out and the Grand Parade, the feature of the encampment, was carried out in full. This parade was participated in by all the visiting Posts and it is estimated that at least 50,000 men were on the march through the streets of Louisville. The parade was the most imposing sight ever witnessed in the South and the enthusiasm of the people was indescribable. Men wept and laughed and embraced each other and shouts of the "War is over" were heard. The "War is over" and similar phrases were voiced by countless thousands. It is undoubtedly the biggest thing this South has ever seen and is a great glory for Louisville and Kentucky.

Resolutions of Respect.

WHEREAS, God in His infinite wisdom has seen fit to remove from our midst our esteemed and beloved brother, G. W. Lander, who departed this life on the 15th of July, 1895.

RESOLVED, Therefore, that we as a Sunday school deeply deplore his loss.

Bro. Lander was our efficient assistant superintendent and the faithful teacher of a large Bible class. To the Edgar Bradford, W. H. Vaughan interests he labored devotedly, often beyond his physical strength.

To his death we bow with humble submission, believing that our loss is his gain. He so lived that we will fondly cherish his memory as a faithful teacher of God's word.

RESOLVED, That we as a school extend to his bereaved family our sincere and heartfelt sympathies.

Respectfully submitted,

J. P. MEACHAM, Chm. J. T. WILLIAMS, J. D. ROBERTS, MISS LAURA BLANEY, MISS FANNIE BAKER.

A Steady Market.

Our tobacco market is quoted as steady, with little fine leaf being offered this week. Prices on low leaf and lugs were satisfactory. Receipts are very light and sales for the week amounted to only about 200 hhds.

No Fire Sale!

For the benefit of those who are expecting a fire sale as a result of our recent slight blaze, we wish to announce that no such sale will be held, as the damage is also slight a nature and confined to so few lines as not to justify a sale of any proportions. What benefits we can give our customers in fire bargains will be readily given, but just now the greatest possible benefits are found in the splendid new stock we are opening daily.

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Meeting Held Monday Night to Take Action in the Second Ward Matter.

Pursuant to the call of the chairman, Geo. E. Gary, the resident members of the county Democratic Executive committee, constituting the city executive committee, Messrs. Alex Campbell, Jns. West, and Geo. D. Dalton, met Monday night Sept. 9 to hear an appeal taken by Mr. M. C. Forbes from the decision of the city auxiliary committee, which recently declared Mr. J. D. Ware Democratic nominee for councilman in the second ward.

Argument was heard by counsel for the respective candidates. Upon the close of the argument the following resolution was offered by Mr. West:

"RESOLVED, That it is the sense of this committee that under the call, neither we, the city executive committee, nor the city auxiliary committee, have the authority or right to go behind the returns; the authority to pass upon the legality or illegality of the voters having been delegated to the officers of the election."

This resolution was unanimously adopted by the committee. Esq. Campbell then moved that the committee adjourn to the next meeting, which was carried.

Adjourned till Thursday night, Sept. 12. Geo. E. Gary, Chm. Geo. D. DALTON, Sec.

The McPherson Property.

The auction sale of the valuable McPherson property on 15th street, Wednesday, was satisfactory to the owners and all sales were confirmed. The 25 lots brought from $60 to $300 each, the aggregate amounting to about $6,000.

C. E. Oliver, Nick Salles, J. L. Kennedy, Frank Monroe and others bought to build at once. Others bought for speculation. The two most desirable front lots were sold privately before the auction sale to Messrs. H. C. Gant and Walter Kelly.

Mr. W. L. Johnson and family left for Trigg county yesterday to spend some time recuperating.

NATIONAL LABOR DAY.

It Will Be Observed on September 2, This Year.

Preparations for Appropriate Celebrations Are Being Performed in All the Large Cities of the Country—Special Points of Interest.

Special Chicago Letter.

Labor day, September 1, will be observed on September 2 this year, the 1st falling on a Sunday. It will probably be more extensively celebrated than ever before. Certainly the element of enjoyment will enter into the celebration in a greater degree than it did a year ago, when so many thousands were out of employment and so many other thousands were suffering from depression of spirits as a result of the failure of the big strike led by the American Railway union. During the past few months the workmen's sky already has been formally presented to the Master Builders' association and it is understood that the whole force of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America will back up the demand. The Labor day demonstration in Indianapolis gives promise of being the grandest of the history of the movement. It will be a state affair, and the trades union of Indiana will be largely represented. From New York, Washington, Baltimore, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Minneapolis, St. Paul, Detroit, Philadelphia and all the other large cities come reports of extensive and elaborate preparations for the proper celebration of the day.

In Illinois there is much enthusiasm over the arbitration law recently enacted by the legislature. It is believed that the law will not only aid materially in the settlement of industrial disputes, but will eventually have the effect of putting an end to industrial wars in the state. Gov. Altgeld's appointment of commissioners under this law also gives general satisfaction. One of these commissioners is C. J. Riefler, president of the Illinois State Federation of Labor; another is W. P. Bend, largely interested in coal mines and a recognized friend of the workmen; the third is Judge Anthony Thornton, a well-known jurist who was a member of the Illinois supreme court from 1870 to 1873. The publication of this law and of these appointments will enter into the celebration of Labor day in Illinois.

Several of the well-known leaders of organized labor in the west will be unable to participate in the demonstrations. Debs and Howard are still languishing in jail, and unless it please the powers that be to release them before their terms have expired they will have to content themselves with reading the newspaper accounts of the holiday festivities.

Samuel Gompers, ex-president of the American Federation of Labor, and P. J. McGuire, first vice president of the same organization, will not be in America on the 2d of September. They sailed for England August 14, armed with credentials as delegates to the federation to the annual trades congress of Great Britain, which assemblies in September at Cardiff, Wales.

One of the new lights in the labor field is P. H. Morrissey, grand master of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. Mr. Morrissey entered the offices of the Brotherhood as a clerk in 1885, where his abilities were quickly recognized. For some years he has held the office of first vice grand master, until at the late convention in Galesburg, Ill., he was elected grand master to succeed S. E. Wilkinson. Mr. Morrissey is scarcely thirty-three years of age, but is regarded everywhere as the most prominent of the younger generation of railway men.

Mr. Morrissey is an able speaker and his voice will be heard on Labor day in the interest of trade organizations, of which he is an earnest champion.

J. F. HENDERSON.

TRUE HOSPITALITY.

An Italian Host Who Moved His Family

That His Guest Might Sleep. Mr. Rudolf Lehmann, in his autobiographical book, "An Artist's Reminiscences," relates a pleasing story of Italian hospitality. He had left Rome to escape its malarial heat, and was on his way to a province in the Apennine mountains on the confines of the papal states. When he reached Sorso, which is the seat of the sub-prefect of the province, it happened to be market day. The little inn was crowded, and the appearance of a forerunner attracted some notice. Mr. Lehmann says:

An apparently well-to-do gentleman inquired about my intended route, and then he heard the name of the first little mountain village for which I was bound, he asked where I was going to lodge.

"At the inn, of course," I answered. "But there is no inn," said the man. "Allow me to give you a letter of introduction."

He then and there sat down, without asking so much as my name, and wrote an introductory note to his brother-in-law, the sindaco of the village of Alivio. Then he gave me his own name and address, and after making me promise to call on him on my way back, took his leave.

The village of Alivio was pitched like an eagle's nest on the top of a rock. My letter, addressed in the most ceremonious manner, procured me a most hospitable reception at the principal house, and after a comfortable night's rest my host supplied me with another smile and guide, together with another letter of introduction, and sent me on to Pisco.

Here I received a friendly welcome from his excellency Don Lorenzo Demarzo, whose family included a host of children of all ages.

In the morning, after a much-needed rest in a colossal state bed, I was awakened by my host who brought the customary cup of black coffee to my bedside. Surprised at the utter silence of the house, after a rather noisy evening, I asked where were the children.

"Oh," was the answer, "we were afraid that they might disturb your rest, so we have temporarily moved into another house that we have in Pisco."

SENATOR PRICE'S LIFE.

Many Years of It Have Been Devoted to Public Service.

The most talked-of man in the United States just now is Senator Calvin Stewart Price, of Ohio. Some of his opponents say that he is really a resident of New York; but the senator, who ought to know, claims citizenship in the pretty town of Lima, in the Congressional Directory, the senator was born in Denmark, O., September 17, 1845; ended Miami university, at Oxford, O., September, 1858; enlisted in Capt. Dodd's university company April, 1861, and served at Camp Jackson, Columbus, SENATOR CALVIN S. PRICE, OHIO.

O.; in April, 1862, enlisted in Capt. Morland's university company A. Eighty-sixth Ohio volunteer infantry, and served the summer of that year in West Virginia; graduated at Miami university June, 1862; after teaching three months in the public schools at Lima recruited a company, reentered the service as captain of company E, One Hundred and Eighty-third Ohio volunteer infantry, served in the first division of the Twenty-third corps in Tennessee, Georgia and Carolina until July, 1865; he studied law in the department of the University of Michigan, at Ann Arbor, and was admitted to the practice by the state and United States district and circuit courts in Cincinnati in the spring of 1865; was on the Tilden electoral ticket in 1876 and Cleveland electoral ticket in 1884; delegate at large from Ohio to the St. Louis democratic national convention in 1888; was selected to represent Ohio on the national democratic committee, and chairman of the campaign committee for the ensuing national campaign; on the death of William H. Barlow he was unanimously elected chairman of the national committee, in 1890; and in January, 1890, was elected United States senator, to succeed Hon. Henry B. Payne, for the term commencing March 4, 1891. His term of service will expire March 4, 1897.

WANTS THE OFFICE.

Mrs. Stewart Would Be Her Own Successor as Sheriff.

Mrs. Helen C. Stewart, of Springfield, Mo., has been appointed by the county court to succeed her husband as sheriff of Greene county. She will serve until the unexpired term is filled out by the election of a sheriff to take the place of her husband, who died in the harness. The indications are that Mrs. Stewart will be nominated by the republican party and elected at the polls.

An effort was made to have the county court appoint her brother to the place, who would turn over the fees to Mrs. Stewart. Her brother is William D. Garwood, general baggage agent of the St. Louis & San Francisco railway, and was perfectly willing to go into an arrangement of that kind. But in this age of blunders, and new women Mrs. Stewart promptly put her foot down on any such a policy and declared that she wanted the office. "O, I can run the office with my son," said Mrs. Stewart.

MRS. HELEN C. STEWART. (Springfield, Greene county, Mo. First woman sheriff in the United States.)

art. "He is now chief deputy and can greatly assist me."

The contest for the appointment has been a bitter one and Mrs. Stewart has frequently resorted to tears of impatience at the capers of the horrid men who could not understand her claims as quickly as she thought they should. There is a big fight on Mrs. Stewart in the ranks of her own party. Timid men swear by their beads that it shocks their modesty to think of a woman sheriff. Others are of the opinion that it is carrying the new woman joke a trifle too far when she comes in and picks up the fattest job in the whole county.

The Missouri law in regard to women holding office is vague. If Mrs. Stewart should be elected to fill out the unexpired term the legality of her position would come to an issue. Mrs. Stewart is a woman of about 45, short and rather heavy. She is good looking and intelligent. She has not been identified with any of the women's rights movements. She is a "womanly woman," but can be firm enough to act as sheriff if duty demands.

Big Australian Gold Fields.

The Coolgardie and Murchison gold fields of western Australia cover an auriferous area of 100,000 square miles, or four times the size of Ireland. Over these fields about 30,000 men are scattered, and something like $15,000,000 of British capital is invested in the mines.

FORBES & BRO.

JOHN M. RIEFLER, PRESIDENT AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR.

has been growing steadily brighter. Mills and factories that had shut down for an indefinite period when the financial panic swept over the country have been resuming operations one by one, until now the great majority of them are giving employment to the usual number of men, and wages are gradually getting back to a satisfactory basis. In addition to this there has been legislation in a number of states calculated to benefit organized labor in a greater or less degree; so it may reasonably be inferred that the workmen are in a frame of mind to enjoy their annual holiday.

Nearly all the states have made Labor day, September 1, a legal holiday, and the general movement has recognized it as such in the District of Columbia. This makes it practically a national holiday, and in most of the cities and towns of the United States there will at least be a partial suspension of business on September 2.

The demonstrations will be similar everywhere. In Chicago, where there is an ugly split in the ranks of organized labor, there will still be a grand street parade and a monster picnic, and it may be that the warring factions will waive their differences for one day and make a full display of their numbers. Socialism is responsible for the bitter family quarrel among the Chicago unions—a quarrel that has developed more bitterness and acrimony than many a fierce contest between capital and labor, as a result of the disruption there are now two central bodies in the city, each acting independently of the other. One of these is the Trade and Labor Assembly, which has been the controlling body for many years; the other is the Trade and Labor Congress, an organization formed by seceding unions.

Owing to this state of affairs the Building Trades Council has taken the management of the Labor day demonstration into its own hands. This organization has planned a parade complete with industrial features and novel displays, and a picnic where there will be a number of prominent speakers and games of various kinds. Whatever other organizations may do, there is no quarrel among the building trades unions, and their council will form the central figure around which the working people will rally on Labor's national holiday. In this connection the Eight Hour Herald, a labor paper edited by Mr. J. Carroll, says:

"The building trades have already taken steps to secure concerted action by the Trade and Labor Assembly and Labor Congress for a united demonstration on Labor day. An invitation from the council to the Trades Assembly has been accepted, and that organization will participate. The Trade and Labor Congress has also been invited to join in, but has not as yet decided upon what course to pursue, giving as a reason for its hesitation a disinclination on the part of its members to engage in any affair in which the Trade and Labor Assembly is included. It is hoped that better counsels will prevail, and that organized labor of Chicago will not be forced to contemplate the spectacle of two factions treating each other as though they were criminals. A difference of opinion may reasonably be supposed to exist as to how central labor bodies should be conducted, without carrying with it a conviction that the who disagrees with you is unworthy of confidence."

GRAND MASTER WORKMAN SOVEREIGN, KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

Among the speakers who will address the Chicago workmen are Hon. Kier Hardie, ex-member of parliament, representing the socialistic wing of the labor party in England; John Swinton, of New York, and Col. W. P. Remond, of Chicago.

In Boston the carpenters will celebrate the day by demanding an eight-hour day and an increase of wages of five cents an hour. A draft of resolutions embodying the demands have

The coming of the Kentucky Press Association to Hopkinsville is

Association to Hopkinsville is a great event for our people. It has been seventeen years since this body visited Hopkinsville. The city of to-day was then a town of 3,000 people. A few of the "veterans of 1878" will be back this month, but they will not recognize in the present bustling city the town they once knew. There could not be a better time for the editors of the State to visit us. The city is on the high road to prosperity, lasting and substantial. With its modern improvements of all kinds completed or under way, its fine hotel, its superior schools, its capital streets, its beautiful stores and enterprising people, all we need is for the outside world to know of these great advantages. Let us welcome the press people with open arms and feed them on the fat of the land. Let us leave a pleasant impression on their minds, a warm feeling in their hearts and a good taste in their mouths.

Congressman Samuel E. Quigg, editor of the New York Press, the paper that recently published a libelous attack on Attorney General Jack Hendricks, has resigned his seat in Congress and will devote all his time to his newspaper work. He is perhaps the first Republican ever known to resign on office.

THE BICYCLE WALK.

American People Fast Becoming a Pigeon-Toed Race.

Discoveries Made by an Illinois Physician—What the Bicycle Habit Will Result In—There Is No Help For It.

An Illinois physician has discovered that the present extreme use of the bicycle is tending to make the great American people a decidedly pigeon-toed race. The constant revolving motion of the feet and lower legs as they turn the pedals has given to the gait of those people who are much addicted to the bicycle a peculiar turn, which the progressive doctor calls the bicycle walk. Those who remember the days of the roller-skating craze will probably recall the effect that exercise had on the gait of those who practiced it, particularly the gait of some young ladies of the age to be easily affected. They took on at once a rolling, swinging, half-gliding, rhythmical step that resembled the motion of roller skating as closely as could be by anyone not on rollers. So it is with the bicycle walk, says the aforesaid Illinois doctor, except that instead of being only a temporary peculiarity it will become permanent and hereditary, as the bicycle fever promises to be, whereas the roller-skating fad enjoyed but a brief existence.

The bicycle walk is nothing more or less than the pedaling motion of the wheel applied to the walk, but it gives to a person who has it a decidedly peculiar appearance. Notice a cyclist who is afflicted. It will be seen that when he lifts his foot in walking he does not put it straight ahead, but carries it back a little, as he would have to in following the pedals, and then swings it high, almost to the calf of the other leg, before sending it forward. The pigeon-toeing comes in there also, and causes the sufferer from bicycle walk to "interfere" after the manner of horses. The interference comes higher up, though, because of the upward swing of the foot as it goes forward.

The pigeon-toeing is accounted for by the position of the foot on the pedals. There the toes turn in and down, and the heels turn up and out, the pressure being borne on the ball of the foot.

Among the racing men the "bicycle walk" is the most noticeable, of course. It has taken them in much worse form than the ordinary cyclist, and extends to the swing of the arms and the carriage of the head. The elbows of the racing man bend out from the body, as a result of having to bear his weight as he leans far over the handle bars, and gives him the appearance of being bow-legged as to his arms. The neck and head are projected forward, and the face wears that strained, anxious expression of a man who pines to get there as soon as possible.

So much for the bicycle walk and its causes. Of its probable effects let the discoverer speak in his own words:

"The bicycle habit, if persisted in," he says, "will make us all knock-kneed and pigeon-toed as our native red men. Pretty much everybody of the present generation rides a wheel, or is just about to begin, therefore pretty much everybody of the present generation will be knock-kneed and pigeon-toed as they will be afflicted with the bicycle walk. These ailments, caused by peculiarities, having settled themselves on this generation, will be usually descended by inheritance to the next generation, and there we are, a knock-kneed and pigeon-toed race. I don't see any help for it, or any need for help, either, so far as that goes, but as a matter of fact, that is what we are coming to and no mistake."—Chicago Chronicle.

It is not what we say, but what Hood's Sarsaparilla does, that tells the story of its merit.

The thousands of people whom it has raised from disease and despair to happiness and health, are the strongest and best advertisements Hood's Sarsaparilla has. No other preparation in existence has such a record of wonderful cures. This is why Hood's Sarsaparilla has the largest sale, and requires for its production the largest laboratory in the world.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

In the September Century Prof.

Siace carries the narrative of Napoleon's life to the period of the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

The topics being: "The Society and Etiquette of the Coast," "The General Pacification of Europe," "The Reorganization of France," "The Code Napoleon and the University of France," "Steps toward Monarchy," "Plot, Counterplot, and the Life of Napoleon," and "Bonaparte and the Threshold of Monarchy." As usual the history is fully and carefully illustrated in a manner superior to that employed heretofore by any popular work in English on the subject.

The Century for September will contain three complete sketches of fiction by popular American writers, representing three different sections of the country. Miss Mary Halleck Foote will contribute a powerful story of mining life in the far West, entitled "The Capt. Temblor." Miss Sarah Orne Jewett will contribute a humorous story of the New England coast, entitled "All My Sad Captains," and representing three different sections of the country. The third is a stirring sketch, by Henry Stillwell Edwards, of negro life in the South.

It is entitled "The Gum Swamp Deed," and is full of humor, and is a faithful reflection of the characteristics of the negro race. In addition to these stories this number contains the last installment but one of Mr. Marion Crawford's powerful and tragic novel of Italy, "Casa Braccio," which is spoken of as his most dramatic, if not his best piece of writing. There is also the conclusion of "The Prince of the Sea," the novelette of American life in Paris, by Miss Julia Magruder, with pictures by Gibson.

Monthly Crop Report.

Since my last report we had another month of good growing weather, and the prospect is a flattering one indeed for the farmers of the State. In most of the counties good rains have fallen, while from those counties where drought has prevailed since July last, good showers are reported, correspondents saying not enough, but very helpful to growing corn and tobacco. Where stock water was scarce the ponds and creeks have been partially supplied. All correspondents agree that the early corn is now past the danger line, is curing up nicely, and will be the heaviest known in years.

The Government report for August places the average condition of corn in this State at 113, which average exceeds that of any State except Missouri, 115, and Texas 113.

Correspondents report the outlook for tobacco in some sections as improving, while in Frigg, Christian and some other sections, the outlook is a complaint of worms is made. From Frigg the correspondent says: "The worm is getting in its work in lively style, and will damage the crop in spite of all that can be done." From Christian: "Tobacco crop fine, but the worms are destroying it."

From the county of Madison: "Pastures look green as they did last spring; corn the best in years; tobacco very spotted; worms very bad."

In the larger tobacco growing counties the ravages of the worm have reduced the average several points since my last report. Pastures are good, vegetables abundant, melons plentiful, and apples in greater abundance than ever known before in this State.

RUSSIAN WOMEN PHYSICIANS.

They Will Be Allowed to Practice Their Profession.

The Medical College for Women in St. Petersburg is about to be opened, with the permission of the emperor and empress. After the closing of the medical classes for women in 1887, many Russian women went to foreign universities—chiefly France and Switzerland—for their degrees, but through thoroughly equipped with the honorable M. D. they were not permitted on their return to practice in their own country. One of them, Miss A. Bogolubsky, native of a mining village (Nechinsk) in East Siberia, having taken the degree of M. D. at the University of Berlin, in 1887, was obliged on her return to make the position of nurse, and in this humble capacity bravely worked for eight years. On the breaking out of the cholera epidemic in 1892, she begged and obtained permission to labor among the masses of suffering peasants who had migrated from different parts of Russia to settle there. Some of the districts were so congested that thousands would have been without any medical aid had it not been for her untiring energy. On her return to St. Petersburg this year, she presented a petition to the emperor, who received permission to take a degree in Russia, which gives a right to practice in any part of the country. The urgent necessity of female physicians is but too apparent, considering the many tribes (Tatars, Yakuts, Turkmenians, etc.) whose women are prohibited by the laws of their religion from receiving medical treatment from the opposite sex. —Globe-Democrat.

THE CHARITY LIST.

The Total Number of Beneficiaries on the Roll 965,947. (Louisville Times.)

There is much interesting matter to be gleaned from Kentucky's pension roll and some good stories might be related of the pensioners were it not a violation of the rules of the bureau to give out the information.

There are no survivors of the war of 1812 that are paid from this office. A hundred and seventy-three widows of the soldiers in that war, however, draw pay at this disbursing station. There are 623 surviving soldiers of the Mexican war that draw pensions through the Louisville office and 409 widows. Of the Indian wars there are twenty-six survivors and eighteen widows that receive their pensions through this office. On June 30, 1894, there were pensioners on Maj. Adams' roll to the number of 29,414. On the same date in 1893 there were 29,901. This shows a decrease in number for 1894 of 487. The average annual amount paid out is $4,000,000.

There are 2,500 pensioners in this city.

Nearly all the G. A. R. Veterans of Louisville were followers of Grant or Sherman, or some of the noted heroes of the Federal army in the war of 1861-4. Most of these old soldiers have since the war been drawing pensions from Uncle Sam.

The total number of pensioners on the roll is 965,947. To this was paid out last year $139,530,058.22.

Ohio has the largest number of pensioners of all the States, drawing annually $14,737,191.54 for 99,837 on the roll. Pennsylvania and New York are close behind. Kentucky ranks eleventh.

There are 8,375 pensioners on the roll that reside in foreign countries. These are scattered through sixty-six different nations and islands, the larger number inhabiting the various islands of the sea. To this class is paid out annually $273,850.75.

The total amount, including clerk hire, paid out by the department last year was $140,538,625.32. The amount appropriated to pay the pensions of last year was $186,531,350. At the close of the fiscal year, June 30, 1894, there was an available cash balance of $25,799,547.82.

It is predicted now that the amount paid out for pensions will steadily diminish with each year. The largest amount paid out in pensions in any one year was in 1893, when $158,155,342.61, was distributed. Last year this amount was decreased by $17,421,049.

The number of cases dropped from the pensions rolls last year was 37,951. New applications were granted to the number of 41,453, a net increase of 3,502, yet a decrease is noted in the amount before the bureau to the number of 619,027. The number of orphans on the pension roll is 75,971. The average annual pension is $194.20. The largest regular pension paid out by the bureau is $100. This applies in cases where the loss of both arms has occurred.

There are 382,274 invalid pensioners on the roll who were enlisted in the army and navy of the civil war. In addition there are 106,405 widows who draw pensions for the service of their husbands and sons.

Until June 30, 1890, some pension rates per quarter were as low as $1. After that time an act was passed by Congress which increased the rates of all pensions to $5.

Of the war of 1812 there are forty-five survivors, all drawing pensions, their ages range from ninety-two to 104 years. The oldest man on the roll served in this war. He is David McCoy, and is now living in Redland, Cal. He is a native of Kentucky, and served with the Kentucky troops. He is 104 years old, and is said to be hale for a man of his years.

There are twelve revolutionary soldiers' widows now living. Three of these, Susanm Chadwick, Sarah C. Hulbert and Ann M. Slaughter, were named by special act of Congress. The ages of this twelve range from seventy-five to ninety. The South furnished the husbands of six, five coming from Virginia and one from North Carolina. Names such as Chadwick, Slaughter, Brown and Sward appear on this list.

It is the coupon of the ticket which Capt. Owen used at Ford's theater on the night that Lincoln was murdered, says the New York Tribune. The captain was then the commanding officer of the United States ship Primrose, and he and his master's mate, William R. Flood, had gone to the theater especially because it was understood that the president would be present, and Owen had taken seats that would be directly in the line of vision with the presidential box. He cherishes the memento warmly, and frequently talks to his friends about that awful and impressive incident. He is a trustee of Round Lake, and in one of his recent official visits there he gave an interesting reminiscence of it.

"Flood," said he, "was the first man to reach the president's side and I was the second. The firing of the shot hardly gave us any idea of the awful deed that it indicated. Booth clambered down the side of the box and crossed the stage, and even then we could comprehend nothing of the awful nature of the catastrophe until Mrs. Lincoln leaned over the edge of the box, wringing her hands, and, with a face of terror and amazement that will never be erased from my memory, called aloud: 'They have shot pa.' I remember the homely phrasing so well.

"That was enough. Flood was out of his seat as if he had been shot from a mortar. He jumped over the head of the leader and climbed into the box before the rest of the audience seemed even yet to comprehend. To shoot the president seemed, even in all the horrors of the long war, to be something too incredible. I followed Flood and was second at the side of the drying man. Flood found him still sitting in his chair but with his head resting on his breast, and he gently lowered him to the floor. There was no sign of any wound and no flow of blood and we believed that there was no disaster until while Flood held his head in his lap he felt the soft trickling of matter. It was not blood. He showed it to me and we knew that the dreadful deed was complete. It was the pure white matter of the brain.

"I see stated that they show people the dress of Laura Keane at the tomb, all dabbled with the president's blood. If this is so it is a mistake, for Mrs. Keane was not at the president's side that night, to my knowledge. The blood was shed most likely by Booth's knife, for the assassin made a stroke at her with it. And that calls for another correction. It has frequently been told how Booth strode majestically and tragically across the stage, and, with a flourish of a dagger, cried: 'So semper tyranni!' As a matter of fact he did not stride majestically at all. He pulled one foot after the other very slowly, for he had fallen as he jumped, his foot being caught in the folds of the American flag which enveloped the lower edge of the stage, and sprained his ankle, and his stride was a most painful process. At the side of the stage, just between the curtain, which was down, and the edge of the proscenium box, stood Mrs. Keane, who had been there some time. She was not in front receiving the applause of a recall, as has also been stated, nor was Harry Hawk with her. Booth dragged himself up to her and she seemed to comprehend ahead of the rest of us what had happened, for she put her hands out toward him and said: 'What have you done, John?' He then made a thrust at her with his dagger and seemed to rip the sleeve of her dress, and he probably wounded her in the arm, for it was a savage blow. It was then that he uttered the cry: 'So semper tyranni!'—that incredible parody and mockery of the noble Roman's utterance.

"The memory of that great event," said the captain, "will remain vividly with me forever, as it remains now, over thirty years after it happened."

From Bull Run to Ohio.

George Hoyt, of Cleveland, O., relates a good story on himself. He was in the first battle of Bull Run, and when the union forces had been put to rout he heard the command to rally on the reserve. He says the only reserve he ever heard of was the Western Reserve, and that he started for that locality as fast as he could go.

In a recent letter to the manufacturers Mr. W. B. E. Johnson, editor of the Spectator, Rushford, N. Y. says: "It may be a pleasure to you to know the high esteem in which Chamberlain's medicines are held by the people of my own state where they must be best known. An aunt of mine, who resides at Dexter, Iowa, was about to visit me a few years since, and before leaving home wrote me, asking if they were sold here, stating if they were not she would bring a quantity with her, as she did not like to be without them. The medicines referred to are Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of colds and croup; Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, lame back, pains in the side and chest, and Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints. These medicines have been in constant use in Iowa for almost a quarter of a century. The people here have learned that they are articles of great worth and merit, and unequalled by any other. They are for sale here by R. C. Hardwick, Drugstore."

FAMOUS BOAT BUILDER.

Nathaniel Greene Herreshoff, Designer of the Yacht Defender. Doubtless to most of the present moment stands more conspicuously before the eyes of the American public than Nathaniel Greene Herreshoff, a man of genius whose latest achievement, the Defender, has eclipsed all his triumphs of the past. Yet no man cares less for the applause of the world or has shown less disposition to flaunt himself. He is the chief representative of a family that was famous in boat building more than a century ago. His father was Charles Frederick Herreshoff, who died three years since at the age of seventy.

NATHANIEL GREENE HERRESHOFF.
 He was the father of seven sons. In him the architectural genius of the family found its fullest expression, and his mantle fell upon his youngest son, Nathaniel. In Nathaniel the mechanical genius of the family is abundantly reproduced from his earliest youth his genius has made itself manifest. At the age of nine he was an excellent helmsman and at twelve he sailed the Sprit to her first victory and won a prize. He graduated from the Institute of Technology, where he took prizes in physics and mathematics. After completing his education at the Institute in 1889 he went with the Corlies steam engine works in Providence, where he remained for seven years and gained a thorough knowledge of engineering. During this time he was the designer for the Herreshoff company, in Bristol, and modeled most of their sail and steam yachts. He then sailed all the yachts at that time built by the Herreshoffs in the races in which they took part. In 1897 he went to Bristol, where he devoted himself exclusively to marine engineering. In that year he brought out the famous Herreshoff catamaran and secured patents on the new features that he had invented. These boats made the fastest time that has ever been accomplished by a sailing vessel, one of them on a certain occasion sailing twenty-one miles in an hour over a measured course. Every engine that was used by the Herreshoff company after 1895 was built from Nathaniel's designs, and he secured numerous patents upon inventions and improvements in engine construction. At the same time the study of yacht models was not neglected, and he was continually experimenting with them. Among his earlier boats were the "Sloop," famous in her day as a prize winner in eastern waters. His later achievements are familiar to everyone—The Wasp, Florida, Virginia, and lastly, the Defender. He has been equally successful in all classes of boats.

MOMENTS OF HORROR.

Terror of a Sea Battle Described by Capt. McElfish.
 Few people, even naval men, realize what fighting on an ironclad really means. Capt. McElfish, who was an officer on board a Chinese man-of-war at the battle of the Yula river, gives an English exchange, however, a most vivid description. He tells, among other things, that the din made by the impact of heavy projectiles against the metal sides of the vessel is awful beyond description.

A Physician's Story.

"PHYSICIAN, HEAL THYSELF." THE ADAGE APPLIED.

Dr. Porter of Kentucky Tells How He Was Lame.
 (From the St. Martin, Ky., Gazette.)
 To the members of the Western Kentucky lives Dr. C. H. Porter, who for 47 years has ministered to the sick in the counties of Rowan and Morgan, and during that time suffered more than many of the patients on both of these counties. His father was a farmer and he was at last cured, his cure was so startling and miraculous that it was won the talk of the mountains and finally reached the ears of a reporter of the Gazette concluded to interview him and to his question, suffering from lameness, he replied:
 "Twenty years ago, while living in Morgan county and practicing my profession, I had a terrible nervous shock that completely prostrated me, and from that time until a few months ago I suffered most agonizing and in fact never knew a well day. I tried everything the way of medicine that I knew and consulted other physicians for miles around, but I found no relief, and I resigned myself to the inevitable and awaited the end. A few months ago my son saw an advertisement in the Louisville Courier-Journal of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and wanted me to try it. I told him they would do me no good, but after taking a few doses I felt better, and again have revived in my breast. I continued taking the pills, and continued to improve, and now I believe I have finally recovered. That is about all of my story. I believe in the Pink Pills and I never fail to recommend them in my practice. In fact, I can tell you of a man that will cure you your lame and who has been almost completely cured of rheumatism after years of suffering. Mr. S. G. Bailey, his name and you can stop and see him."

After thanking Dr. Porter the Gazette man started for Mr. Bailey's residence. He was found on his farm cutting some trees down. In reply to our inquiry, Mr. Bailey said: "Yes, Dr. Porter told me the truth. I suffered years with rheumatism and was only able to leave my room in good weather, and then was not able to do any work. I was urged by Dr. Porter to try Pink Pills, for several weeks I positively refused. He finally overcame my prejudices, however, and I am glad of it, for you can see your son that Pink Pills have done for me. I can tell you that I will show you my crippled and cane which Pink Pills have enabled me to lay aside. I have also been able to leave my room in good weather, and I have been able to do any work. Take Vitalia Liver Pills.*

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

It is excellence is due to its preventing in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

The city wagon was left standing on the street near the engine room Tuesday morning and before the driver returned dashed off up Main street at a fearful rate of speed.

Several vehicles on Main street narrowly escaped collisions and there was a general stampede of school children and others on the street to get into stores.

The team ran out Main street and ran into a phaeton standing in front of Mr. Chas. M. Meacham's house, in which his 10-year-old boy was seated.

He jumped in time to save his life, just as the phaeton was torn to pieces.

The frightened horses continued to run to the suburbs, a mile or more, before they finally stopped.

This is not the first time these horses have run away and unless they are kept under rein they are going to kill somebody yet.

Another team ran away the day before and came running into a well he at the L. & N. depot, filled with people.

There is an ordinance against leaving horses unattended that seems to have been forgotten.

Dr. A. P. Campbell has resumed the practice of medicine and has secured the right to extract teeth by the painless process. Office over Bassett & Co.

TOBACCO NEWS.

CLARKSVILLE MARKET.

The condition of the Clarksville market is reported as follows:

Prices were reported a little easier this week on a large percentage of the offerings, which were composed of fanned and hand-sweated tobaccos.

There was only a limited supply of the good sorts, as the stocks have been pretty well picked over for this season.

Italian tobaccos were noticed in limited supply, as were the kinds fairly well suited to the Bremen trade, being not strictly Bremen types, but approximately.

Report for the week and year to date is as follows: Receipts for the week 328 hhds., for the year 23,001 hhds.; offerings for the week 638 hhds., for the year 34,663 hhds.; sales for the week 563 hhds., for the year 25,724 hhds. Planters are busy cutting and it is estimated that 15 per cent of the crop has now been harvested.

Quotations: Lugs, $1.75 to $5.50; leaf $4.50 to $11.50.

Mr. J. A. Gorman, Manager of the California Building, has received from the Chamber of Commerce, Los Angeles, a communication saying that an Orange Tower, thirty-five feet high will be erected in the center of the building, and will be illuminated by means of three hundred incandescent electric lights. The tower will be covered entirely with oranges, which will be kept fresh during the entire Exposition. For that purpose five carloads of oranges have been placed in cold storage at Los Angeles and supplied will be shipped once every fifteen days to replenish the exhibit.
